Recipe of the Month

Bacon Wrapped Duck Breasts

Ingredients

6-8 Cleaned Duck Breasts
6-8 Pieces of Bacon
Sliced fresh or pickled jalapenos 1/2 a cup cubed cream cheese or your favorite cheese
Balsamic vinegar or Italian dressing
Salt and pepper
Any other favorite spice

Directions

Marinate each duck breast in balsamic vinegar or Italian dressing along with salt and pepper and favorite spice for at least 4 hours.
Open each breast and place a cube of cheese and slice of jalapenos.
Fold over breast to cover it. Take slice of bacon and wrap duck breast all the way around the breast and use a toothpick to keep it together.
You can bake, broil, or grill. Grilling is preferred method. Place on hot grill and rotate every few minutes.
When cheese starts coming out it's ready.

in early 2011. We hope to add additional items. A big thank you to Stephanie Bonilla for organizing the event and to Ron Young for the hospitality. Check out his facility: Windwood Ranch. Talk about pure Texas beauty! If you'd like to check out the photos from the event please click

Look for more shooting and hunting opportunities in the coming months. On the horizon a return to Sharpshooters, a skeet shoot, a duck hunt and an intro to guns for those who don't know where to start. We want to keep you ladies in practice.

Don't forget the upcoming deer and hog hunt in November. More information to follow on the www.townrockport.org website.

DID YOU LOVE WOMEN IN THE WILD?

*Don't want to wait until next Spring to do it again?
CHECK OUT UPCOMING BECOMING AN OUTDOOR WOMAN (BOW) EVENTS*

What's going on?

In an effort to promote women's events across the state, we provide a list below of events, sponsored by our partner organizations as well as Becoming an Outdoors-Woman. Information and materials are available approximately 4-5 weeks before the date of the workshop.

Which classes are offered at any given BOW Workshop?

Every workshop includes a core curriculum of classes which include the shooting sports, camping, backpacking, outdoor cooking, archery, plant i.d., bird watching, introduction to firearms and hunting, map & compass, outdoor survival, orienteering, fly tying and outdoor first-aid. Dependent upon the workshop location we can offer additional classes like horseback riding, sailing, kayaking, boat handling, fishing, and falconry.

Upcoming BOW Weekends:

November 5-7 at Prairie Haynes Ranch near Killeen
March 25-27, 2011 at Texas 4-H Center in Brownwood
September 16-18, 2011 at Camp Allen in Navasota

Upcoming Meetings /Speakers

October 26th at Poor Man's

Come hear Alan Voigt from Rockport Tackle Town talk about basic reel repair and maintenance. Learn how to extend the life of your reel, what reel works best for who, what each knob does, what the difference between line and more. Spinning and Bait Casting will both be discussed.

We will also be talking about open positions for the upcoming 2011 TOWN Rockport Board.

November Meeting

Will be held on Nov. 16th at Poor Man's.

Please note the change of date due to the Thanksgiving Holiday. We will be holding 2011 Board Elections on this date and talking about 2011.

December Meeting

Will be held on Dec. 14 at Poor Man's. We will be having a White Elephant exchange in lieu of a party this year. Please bring something from home that is wrapped if you'd like to participate. This will be our big social of the quarter. We will supply desserts, but if you'd like to bring a favorite of your own you are welcome to.

First Friday has moved to Monday!

First Friday has moved to First Monday! Join us for Monday Night Football at Poor Man's at 7:30pm. Upcoming games: Nov. 1 Texans vs. Colts and Dec. 6 Jets vs. Patriots. Please contact Kim at events@townrockport.org for more information.
